Thanks Mark,

I would encourage you try the email again without the dot at the end. Sometimes this small formatting issue can cause a bounce back.

PHD.Communications@state.or.us. Should look like this PHD.Communications@state.or.us

I hope that helps! My test message went through, so I'm hoping this is all it is. Please let me know if it still does not work, and thank you for letting me know about Susan's phone line.
